

FALL STUDIES BEGIN IN SEPTEMBER

Wednesdays at 1pm in room 207 & Zoom
beginning Sept. 16

"Praying with Jonah, Practices for Imperfect Pilgrims"
by Sharon Seyfarth Garner.

The author will help us explore through the Biblical story of Jonah, what it means to listen deeply for God's presence, pray honestly, act boldly, and love extravagantly. Please order the book on your own.

Questions, contact Gretty at gretty.myers@gmail.com

Thursdays at 9am on Zoom beginning Sept. 24

"Genesis, a Beginners Guide to the Beginning"
by Amy Jill Levine.

invites readers into the foundational stories of the Old Testament with clarity, depth, and imagination.

Facilitated by Duane Miller.

Contact the church office at westlakeumc@westlakeumc.org for the Zoom link.

Mondays at 7pm in Room 207 & Zoom beginning Oct. 11

Want to go deeper into the Social Principles? Join lay leader Elaine Hermetet and Ellie Peiffer for a 6 weeks group that will engage with the United Methodist stance on today's most pressing social issues. The first meeting will be in person in room 207 with the option of joining via Zoom for the remaining sessions.
